DiscussIT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain...

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

People are always going to find a negative side on everything but what need to be focused on is the good not the bad and yes Trump says things that may seem wrong but people aren't thinking about what he is saying and just focus on the bad and negative things. They aren't understanding his good points. And maybe this will split the country but its unlikely because we still all have to coupe with this and Trump is are president and our man in charge is going to do certain things that are right for this country he is going to do what is NECESSARY. But one thing this will cause and has caused is argument people with different views and opinions will clash with one another on what they thing is right and this ridiculous.
